8.2 Regular executive and general meetings shall be held throughout the fall and winter terms.
8.3 Special Meetings shall be called at any time deemed necessary by the EB.

9 Article IX: Electoral Procedures
This can be designed as you wish. Sample:
9.1 The EB will be established through the appointment of candidates by the existing EB.
9.2 The general membership must be notified of the due date for EB applications at least 2 weeks in advance.

9.3 The EB will be established by March 31st.

9.4 After the application deadline if needed candidates may be shortlisted and interviewed. Each candidate for all available positions will be assessed collectively by the EB and a consensus will be reached by the EB to select the best candidate for each available position.

9.5 In the event a consensus cannot be reached the Co-Directors will decide on the new EB member. In the event that the EB cannot reach a consensus and the Co-directors cannot reach a consensus then the EB will conduct a majority vote to elect the new member.

9.6 If at any point any EB member submits that another EB member isn’t fulfilling their roles and responsibilities then the Co-Directors will raise this issue at the next general meeting. One month after the issue has been raised a second general meeting will be held to decide if the member of concern has show greater commitment or if that member should be dismembered. If it is one of the Co-Directors who is not is fulfilling their roles and responsibilities the Editor-In-Chief will raise the issue and the procedure that follows will remain the same.

9.8 If a member is dismembered the general members will be notified and the application for that member's position will open up within a week.

9.9 The Vice-President (Clubs & Services) of SSMU or his/her representative shall be the Chief Electoral Officer (CEO) with final authority over electoral procedures and validity of results.

9.10 The Executive Committee may designate Deputy Electoral Officers (DEOs) to assist the running of elections in consultation with the Co-Directors.

9.11 All electoral information and decisions must be kept in a secure place for 5 weeks after the date of voting.

9.7 The Vice-President (Clubs and Services) should be notified immediately in the event of contested electoral results.
